Home Decor and Dinnerware

My name is Jordan, everything in my shop is 100% handmade by me. I started working with clay 6 years ago and instantly fell in love. I design functional ceramics that are intended to bring joy into the home, allowing the pots to give meaning to the way we eat, live, and connect...

Minimum Orders

I do wholesale prices with a minimum of a $400 order, the buyer is responsible for shipping which will be quoted after I evaluate the size of the order.

Ceramic Artist & Designer

JordanBCeramics is a small-scale ceramics production studio. Jordan Blankenship is a ceramic artist from Florida who found clay while taking a ceramics course in college. Jordan created her line of ceramics due to her desire to bring beautiful designs to everyday objects.

The philosophy is simple: everything is 100% handmade with an attention to quality. Jordan's functional objects are intended to bring joy into the home—drawing inspiration from the simple, well-designed things of ordinary life and finding ways to elevate our daily rituals.

“I want to celebrate the beauty of simplicity where objects can be appreciated when made thoughtfully and honestly...” -Jordan Blankenship
